Meet the students

Hello, I'm Alicia. Today I'm in Brighton.

Brighton is in the south of England. It's on the coast. It's a fantastic town, and it's famous for the Royal Pavilion, the pier, and the beach. But I'm not on holiday. I'm here to visit an English language school.

This is the school. It's a big school with about three hundred and fifty students. Rike and Hyeongwoo are students at the school. Hyeongwoo is twenty-three years old. He's from Korea. He's a beginner student. His class is small, with only five students. His teacher is Stephen. He's English. He's very friendly, and he's a very good teacher.

Rike is nineteen years old. She's from Germany. She's an intermediate student, and her class is big, with eleven students. Her teacher is Laura. She's English. She's really nice, and she's a very good teacher, too.

When Rike and Hyeongwoo aren't in class, they're in the computer room...or here, in the canteen. In the evening they're at home. Rike and Hyeongwoo live in a student house. It's near the school. It's a big house with five bedrooms, a kitchen, and a garden.

Brighton is great for students like Rike and Hyeongwoo. The people are friendly, and the town is exciting and fun!

Buildings with a past

Hi! I'm Greg. Welcome to Oxford. I'm visiting the Old Bank Hotel. It's an unusual hotel in the centre of the city.

The Old Bank is in the High Street, in the centre of Oxford. Today it's a luxury hotel, but these buildings – from number ninety-two to number ninety-four – have a very interesting history.

In the sixteenth century, they were part of Christ Church College. In the eighteenth century, they were different shops. And we know that in eighteen-oh-eight the buildings were one business – a bank.

There was a bank here for almost two hundred years, but today it's a famous Oxford hotel. Would you like to go in and look? Let's go.

The Old Bank Hotel has a beautiful reception and a fantastic restaurant. There are forty-two bedrooms and they're all very comfortable. They have great views of Oxford's famous colleges. This room has a large bed, two chairs, a table, a television, and a cupboard. It has a beautiful marble bathroom, too.

But there are other rooms that visitors to the hotel don't usually see. These secret rooms are here in the cellar, under the hotel. These are the old bank vaults. When the hotel was a bank, all the money was here. The rooms were small and the doors weren't easy to open! They were very, very strong, and on each one, there was a large lock.

Video Script

Today, these old vaults are storerooms. The hotel keeps its wine collection in here, so it's very, very safe!

Ninety-two to ninety-four High Street is a part of Oxford's history. And today, if you want to visit Oxford, the Old Bank is a fantastic place to see!

I Are you good at giving directions?

C No, I'm not. I am the worst person to ask for directions. I myself am not good at finding places or following directions, so I pretty much am not good at it.
